

Indian festival of light

The annual festival of lights, Diwali, runs from 20-25 October at Federation Square including dance performances and a Bollywood film Marathon.

The main event on 25 October will immerse Federation Square in the rich colours of India. The whole day of non-stop cultural blast will cater for all ages.

The festival will feature arts and craft workshops, Jugglers, clown, face painting for children, interactive items with AFL players and Australian cricketers to a multinational bazaar and also a variety of cuisines to enjoy.

For music and dance lovers, captivating traditional and Bollywood dances, an Indian dance workshop for all to learn and a live band will also perform. Local Indian, Fijian, Srilankan, Mauritian and Chinese artists will present unique collaborative fusion items that have never been seen before.

Victorians will witness a renowned Odissi dance troupe coming specially from India to perform at Fed Square.

The indoor program at Deakin Edge will begin at 12pm and will include lecture demonstrations on meditation, laughter yoga and some classical dance and instrumental performances.

In collaboration with charity partner White Ribbon the oath taking ceremonies will be conducted asking all Victorians to say "No to Violence against Women".

The festivities will begin at 12 noon and culminate with a spectacular display on the Yarra at 9.30pm.

In addition to the celebrations at Fed Square, like previous years international travellers will enjoy the beautiful Diwali decorations at the Departure Lounge of Melbourne Airport from 19-26 October with dance performances on 21 October.

Zombie apocalypse

Hell is overflowing and the undead are returning to life, you will have to make your way through our full sized haunted house decked out as an abandoned city scape with alleys filled with Zombies ready to tear you apart.

If you make it through the maze and reach the security gates on the other side of the city, you will be escorted to 'Sanctuary' a slum city inside our giant warehouse, where the survivors of the apocalypse enjoy the last remaining comforts the world has to offer including music, dancing, food, and games. But look closer the facade of the city hides a much darker truth.

Djs dressed as demons rule the party and spray lasers into the crowd from atop a giant skull, while fallen angels forced into servitude dish drinks over the bar and dark angels dance from atop their caged podiums. Will you venture into the darkness and seek the unknown? Q
